

ENVELOPE A-I: ON INDIAN AGRICULTURE, TECHNOLOGY ETC.

-----
1. Description of agricultural implements and processes in the Poona area (by the British Ambassador to the Peshwa): 1789

- 3 pages [Malet papers] (?)

2. Col.Robert Kydd (founder of the Botanical Gardens, Calcutta) to William Jones: 1791: Extracts from "Some remarks on the soil and cultivation on the Western side of the river Hooghly": Describes various technologies etc.

- 13 pages [IOR: MSS/Eur/F 95/I]

3. Correspondence of H.Scott, Bombay and James Anderson, Madras on various technologies etc.: 1790's: Extracts from Board of Agriculture Journal (?) (1796-97).

- 24 pages [British Museum: 958 h 26(1)]
Photostat - 12x2 pages

4. On the drill Husbandry of India: correspondence between James Anderson and Thomas Halcott: 1790's: Extracts from Communication to the Board of Agriculture, 1797 (?).

- 8 pages [British Museum: 958 a 11(1)]
Photostat - 4x2 pages

5. Answers to some queries of the Board of Agriculture, from James Anderson, Madras, 25-10-1795.

- 8 pages [British Museum: 958 a 11(2)]
Photostat - 4x2 pages

6. Correspondence between John Sinclair, Edinburgh and C.Martin, Lucknow: 1800: Martin describes a method by which he removed stones in the urinary bladder. Extract from Sir John Sinclair: Correspondence (1831).

- 6 pages [British Museum: 614 e 13(II)]
Photostat - 3x2 pages

7. Description of agricultural implements in Maharashtra. [House of Commons Papers, pp 1852-3/Vol.75]

[PHOTO 2 SHEETS]
-----